ONOS ORIENTATION PROGRAM

The One Nation One Subscription (ONOS) initiative is actively utilized by both staff and students of Government Degree College, Narasannapeta. Through ONOS, users gain access to a wide range of e-resources including e-journals, e-books, and research databases. Faculty members use these resources for teaching, research, and academic development, while students benefit by enhancing their knowledge, completing assignments, and preparing for competitive exams.

3. INDCAT (UNION CATALOGUE OF INDIAN UNIVERSITIES)

INDCAT (Indian National Union Catalogue) is an online bibliographic database developed by INFLIBNET Centre. It provides access to a huge collection of books, theses, and journals available in university and college libraries across India. It helps users to identify where a particular document is available and supports resource sharing among libraries.

Use of INDCAT by Government Degree College Students

Students of Government Degree College are actively using INDCAT for their academic needs. Through INDCAT, they can:

Search for books and reference materials easily

Locate documents available in different libraries

Access detailed bibliographic information for research

Improve their project work and assignments with quality sources

INDCAT plays a vital role in enhancing students' learning experience by providing access to a wide range of academic resources beyond their college library. It supports digital learning and helps students develop better research skills.

- Event Type: Seminar
- Status: Approve
- Mode: Offline
- Topic Category: Mathematics and Statistics
- Topics: Mathematics
- Conference Website: <https://gdcnarasannapeta.ac.in>

Description

International Pi Day is celebrated every year on March 14 (3/14) to honor the mathematical constant  $\pi$  (Pi). Pi is a special number used in mathematics to represent the ratio of a circle's circumference to its diameter. Its value starts as 3.14159 and continues infinitely without repeating. The date 3/14 matches the first three digits of Pi (3.14), which is why this day is chosen for the celebration. On Pi Day, students, teachers, and math lovers around the world celebrate mathematics through fun activities such as solving puzzles, math competitions, reciting the digits of Pi, and eating pies (because "pie" sounds like "Pi"). Many schools and colleges organize seminars, quizzes, and workshops related to mathematics.
